NOTES AND EXPLANATIONS

Work on the Andrews record has been in progress for over ten years, and includes personal research in New Haven, Wallingford, and Meriden, Conn., in Windham, Ashland, Catskill, and Hudson, N. Y., and in several towns in Schuyler, Wayne, and Yates Counties, N. Y., in the Conn. State Library at Hartford, and in the Census Bureau in Washington, D. C. Here, vital records, land, probate, church, and military records were examined, cemeteries visited, and descendants interviewed.

Letters kept by Edwin C. Andrews, extending over a period from 1835 until his death in 1885, proved of invaluable assistance, as did also a large number of Bible records, and a large collection of clippings, obituaries, accounts of marriages, and biographical articles. Dozens of descendants in all branches have contributed greatly to the record by sending data on their families and related branches, and this help is greatly appreciated.

Over eight hundred descendants of Laban and Prudence Stanley Andrews have been located included the Hosford family, which is listed only briefly here (see page 5). Only one line from Laban Andrews has not been located, that of Lowly Andrews Dexter or Hubbard (see page 4). With this unlocated line and a few families in later generations who did not respond to inquiries or could not be located, the number would probably be nearer a thousand.

The fact that both collection of data and mimeographing of material have extended over a long period of time accounts for many of the irregularities and imperfections of the work. It was hoped that before the record was completed some of the missing records might be secured and inserted in their proper sequence, and in many cases this was done. In some cases it was found necessary to add extra numbers, as (62a) and extra pages as 71a, 71b, etc. to take care of data which arrived too late to be included in its regular sequence.

The following explanation of the number sequence may assist in the location and tracing of individuals. All descendants, except the Hosfords, are completely indexed, the line of each child of Laban and Prudence Andrews having a separate section and number sequence. Each individual bears the same number wherever he is listed, as a child in parentheses, as head of a family without. Thus two number sequences run together, one at the extreme left for heads of families, the other indented and in parentheses for children. For descent or ancestry follow these sequences forward or backward. For example: The index may list an individual on page 61; his number may be found to be (65) and his father's number 31; follow indented number sequence until (31) is located on page 57, child of number 9; follow back until number (9) is located on page 55, child of 3, and so on back to number 1, on page 54, who is a son of Laban and Prudence Andrews.

FIFTH GENERATION IN AMERICA

LABAN ANDREWS (Son of Samuel and Abigail Tyler Andrews)

Born Apr. 25, 1728 Wallingford, Conn.

Died Jan. 24, 1813 Greene Co., N.Y.

Married Apr. 5, 1758 Wallingford Prudence Stanley, daughter of Abraham and Prudence Pinney Stanley. She was born May 13, 1734 Wallingford, died Feb. 12, 1814. Both are buried in a Jewett Heights Cemetery near Ashland. Their tombstone inscription reads: Sacred/to the memory of/Laban Andrews/who departed this life/Jan. 24, 1813 aged/85 years/Also of Prudence/his wife/who departed this life/Feb. 12, 1814/aged 80 years/Here lie their bodies/in peaceful habitation/and quiet resting places/Here they are relieved/of every burden/and are wraped in rest/evermore.

Laban Andrews was apprenticed to Capt. Macock Ward, probably engaged in the manufacturing of reeds used in hand looms. Macock Ward was evidently an uncle as Hannah Tyler, sister of Laban's mother Abigail, married Macock ward. He fell in love with and became engaged to their daughter Content, who converted him to the Episcopalian faith. He became such a missionary that he converted his parents and family, who became members of the Church of England. The engagement was broken but the allegiance to the church continued. Laban was for many years a church warden. He evidently served in the French and Indian War as his name appears as sergeant 1755 with other Wallingford men in the muster roll of a company under the command of Col. Elihu Chauncey of Durham. In spite of the friction due to the Andrews family's adherence to the Church of England during the Revolution, Laban Andrews was a staunch patriot. At a town meeting held in 1775 a Committee of Inspection was elected to inquire into all cases of suspected loyalty and to take such measures as were necessary, Laban Andrews serving for Meriden parish. (This service entitles his descendants to membership in the D.A.R. and other patriotic societies.) A lineage record in The Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America states that Laban Andrews was wounded by Tories and was unable to bear arms, and so furnished guns, which he himself made, for those who could serve in the army. However, I have not been able to find any authority for the statement. He was a selectman in Wallingford during most of the Revolution. After the Revolution, later than 1782 (when a daughter's marriage is recorded in Wallingford) the family moved to New York state. The 1790 census lists him in Woodstock, Ulster Co., N.Y. His father's will states that he had already given to Laban nearly his portion of his estate, so he is given only 2 sheep, and, according to a division of land agreed on by the heirs, about 9 acres of land and 2 acres in the house lot, and 1/8 of the house, his brother Denison allowing Laban a watering place at the corner of his meadow. It would appear that Laban did not move until after the settlement of his father's estate 1785, possibly not until after the death of his mother in 1786. The History of Greene Co., N.Y. says that he settled in Jewett about 1785. As the 1800 census and both land and probate records call him of Windham, he evidently settled in that part of Windham which became Jewett. He and his sons were among the pioneers of the town. He built the first grist mill 1795. The Greene Co. Hist. says he was a public spirited man, a warm and faithful friend. He is said to have brought a brass clock and a sun dial from Conn. He left no will; Isaac Buell, his son-in-law, was appointed administrator of his estate. The inventory of his estate and the disposition of his wardrobe are most interesting.

SIXTH GENERATION IN AMERICA

1. LOWLY ANDREWS (1st child of Laban and Prudence Andrews)

Born Jan. 12, 1759 Wallingford, Conn.

Married Nov. 28, 1782 Wallingford, Oliver Dexter.

Children of Oliver and Lowly Andrews Dexter:

(2) William Pitt born Dec. 20, 1783 Wallingford, Conn.

No information has been found about this family after the birth of a son in Wallingford. Whether or not they emigrated with the Andrews family to Greene Co. is not known. He is listed in neither Wallingford nor Greene Co., N.Y. in the 1790 or 1800 census records. Dexters, among whom are Samuel and Andrew (suggesting a possible Andrews connection), are listed in Greene Co. census records 1850 and later, and in the land and probate records, but nothing has been found to connect them with Oliver and Lowly Dexter. The Conn. vital records in the State Library at Hartford give no further data.

Members of the Rice line have records listing Lowly Andrews as married to A. Hubbard. Araunah Hubbard, with Isaac Buell and Reuben Hosford (two sons-in-law of Laban Andrews), was an appraiser of Laban Andrews' estate. Hubbards owned property adjoining that of Laban Andrews. Possibly Lowly married Araunah Hubbard as a second husband, though no confirmation has been found in published records, and Greene Co. records have not yet been checked with this possibility in mind.

A record left by Amos Rice, whose wife, Loretta Susan Andrews, was a grand-daughter of Laban Andrews, states that Laban Andrews died at the home of his son-in-law Isaac Buell in Jewett Jan. 24, 1813, and that his widow, Prudence Andrews, died at the home of her oldest daughter (who would be Lowly) in Ashland Feb. 12, 1814. Thus it would seem that Lowly Andrews Dexter moved to Greene Co. possibly when her parents came, her husband having died before or soon after, and there married again and settled in Ashland. Whether she left Hubbard descendants or Dexters other than the one son is not known.

SIXTH GENERATION IN AMERICA

I. OLIVE ANDREWS (2nd child of Laban and Prudence Andrews)

Born May 2, 1761 Wallingford, Conn.

Married Mar. 1, 1779 Wallingford Reuben Hosford, son of Gideon and Jerusha Cook Hosford. He was born Sept. 6, 1760 Wallingford. He was a soldier in the Revolution and an appraiser of guns. Lawyer. He was one of the early settlers of Greene Co. in what later became Jewett, coming in 1792. He was clerk of the first town meeting of Windham 1797 or 8; admitted to the bar at Catskill Jan. 1801; was assemblyman for Greene Co. 1823.

Children of Reuben and Olive Andrews Hosford:

- (2) Pitt Andrews b. Jan. 19, 1780. Married and evidently had a number of children, of whom Benajah at least left descendants.
- (3) Willis b. Wallingford Feb. 23, 1782 d. 1850 m. Lucia Osborn, b. Goshen, Conn. Nov. 23, 1793. Had 17 children of whom three died in infancy and all the others left descendants - Myron, Mary who m. Rufus Fuller, Erwin, Chauncey Olin, Janette who m. Norman Johnson, Milton, Elizabeth who m. Decalvus Soule, Harriet who m. Geo. Ormsbee, Helen who m. Alfred Burns, and Charles Jones.
- (4) Henry b. Wallingford Feb. 3, 1784 d. Jewett, N.Y. July 2, 1861 m. May 20, 1808 Orley Vanslyke. Had 4 children of whom one died in infancy, Maria who m. ?, Jane who m. John Peck, and Henry Reuben left descendants.
- (5) Chauncey b. Dec. 12, 1798 d. June 3, 1882 m. Mar. 11, 1824 Lucinda Arnold, b. Sept. 18, 1804 d. Nov. 26, 1879. Had 5 children of whom 2 died young, and Olive m. Gilbert Townsend, Catherine m. John DePue, and Seymour left descendants.

The Hosford Genealogy lists the descendants of these families for several generations down to recent years, so they will not be included here.

1. ICHABOD ANDREWS (4th child of Laban and Prudence Andrews)

Born July 3, 1767 Wallingford, Conn.

Died July 18, 1840 Reading, N.Y.

Married 1794 Lowly (Loly) Tuttle, daughter of John and Lois Austin Tuttle, in Greene Co., N.Y. She was born Feb. 7, 1771 in Wallingford, Conn. (birth recorded as "Lois" according to Jacobus and in Tuttle Bible record); died Apr. 29, 1844 Reading.

Both were buried in the Andrews family graveyard on their farm in Reading; later removed with all the rest to the Andrews lot in Hillside Cemetery, Dundee, N.Y., on which lot and two adjoining ones thirty-four members of the family are buried.

Ichabod Andrews was one of the pioneers of Windham, Greene Co., N.Y., in that part of the town from which Lexington was formed. In 1812 on the day that war was declared against England, he purchased of Phelps and Gorham 200 acres of land in the town of Reading, Steuben Co., N.Y. (now Schuyler Co.) near the Starkey line and between the new Pre-emption Line and the road leading directly south from Dundee, about five miles south of Dundee. In the spring of the following year he brought his family from Greene Co. to their new home, his brother Amherst and other families soon settling in the same neighborhood, which was known as the Andrews Settlement. The country at that time was an almost unbroken wilderness, and for several years there were no schools nor churches. The children were taught by a neighbor, a Mr. Keeler, at his own house for a few years until a log school house was built. The primitive Andrews house was a double log house larger than the homes of many other settlers. Lowly Andrews was an ardent Episcopalian, and every Sunday morning she had children of the neighborhood gather at her house to learn the catechism. On Sunday afternoons the neighbors congregated for the reading of "The Catskill Record", brought every Saturday from Havana, twelve miles away, the nearest post office. This was said to be the only newspaper taken in the settlement and Ichabod Andrews the only subscriber.

In 1861 a grandson, Dr. Albert Andrews, writing of his grandparents, Ichabod and Lowly Andrews, said of his grandfather, "his venerable form, his kind benevolent countenance, his bowed frame resting on his little spotted staff, his indescribable sufferings at times and when exempt from them, his kind and genial smile and look, his happy conversations with his children, who ever loved to listen to his words of wisdom or amusing tale of olden times", and of his grandmother, "grandmother with her love of neatness and order, would be attending to the duties she so loved, looking to her domestic affairs and the wants of all around her. Those piles of mince pies and stacks of nut cakes in the early winter were ever her pride, and how she used to delight in filling the pockets of us boys with the latter and apples, bid us go to school and be good boys. They have long since gone to their happy home. Should we mourn?"

Many earlier family letters have been preserved, of the 1830s and 1840s, some including reminiscences of life in Greene Co. These give little information about Ichabod and Lowly Andrews aside from progress of work on the farm, the usual concern for the health of all the family, and their deep interest in the welfare of any absent children. They are interesting in that they indicate that the family kept in touch with and entertained a wide variety of both Tuttle and Andrews relatives. Apparently no letters written by either Ichabod or Lowly Andrews have been preserved.

Evidently neither Ichabod nor Lowly Andrews left a will. No will or administration is recorded in the Steuben or Schuyler Co. Surrogate's Office.

SEVENTH GENERATION

2. PHILO ANDREWS M.D.

Born July 17, 1795 Greene Co., N.Y.

Died Apr. 24, 1847 Scipio, Ind. Buried in the Andrews family lot in Dundee, N.Y.

Married Oct. 2, 1822 Clarissa Pelton, daughter of William and Ruth Clark Pelton of Yates and Cohocton Counties, N.Y. She was born in Conn. Sept. 3, 1804 (Pelton Gen.) and was listed as 66 in the 1870 census. A copy of her tombstone inscription, however, gives her death as Feb. 19, 1894 aged 84 yrs. and 5 mos. (possibly an error in copying) She married (2) John Nickerson, whose first wife was her sister, Phoebe. He probably died before 1860 as he is not listed in the 1860 census with the rest of the family. She is listed in the 1860 census as a seamstress and in 1870 was living with her son-in-law, Alfred Miller.

Philo Andrews was a physician of good reputation and practiced in Pultney and Kanona, N.Y. (Wolcott Record) A deed of 1825 calls him of Bath, N.Y. In 1836 he left Reading to set out for the west, evidently to Indiana where a daughter was born in 1840. He evidently began a practice in Scipio, Ind. by 1842 at least. This was a country practice and involved hard riding on horseback. (old letters) After his death the family apparently returned east and were in North Cohocton, N.Y. in 1854. It is not known when they moved to Saline, evidently by 1858.

Children of Philo and Clarissa Pelton Andrews:

- (8) Albert B. born about 1823 died Oct. 9, 1862 aged 39, evidently of tuberculosis. Buried in Saline. Probably unmarried. He was a physician and practiced in Marietta, Ind. and Milan, Mich. before his health failed. It is from letters which he wrote to his uncle, Edwin C. Andrews, that much of the information about this family is obtained.
- (9) Lola T. born about 1826. Teacher. Unmarried. died Oct. 13, 1871 aged 44. Buried in Saline.
- (10) Anson C. born Apr. 10, 1828. Unmarried. died June 26, 1860. Buried in family lot in Dundee.
- (11) Helen M. born Oct. 25, 1830. Teacher. Unmarried. died Dec. 29, 1853. Buried in family lot in Dundee
- (12) Ruth Ann born Aug. 7, 1833 Kennedyville, N.Y.
- (13) Rosetta J. " 1840 Indiana
- (14) Edwin ? The Wolcott Record lists this son, but I have found him in no other record. The Tuttle Genealogy states that there were 6 children in the family. If there was a son Edwin he evidently died young.

3. SHERLOCK ANDREWS

Born July 29, 1796 Windham, N.Y.
 Died Dec. 18, 1872. Buried Dundee, N.Y. in family lot
 Married Feb. 7, 1821 Pamela Thomas, daughter of Reuben and Lucy
 Thomas. She was born June 17, 1799 Fort Ann, N.Y. and died Sept.
 13, 1883. Buried with husband in Dundee.

They settled on fifty acres of land given him by his father. After a few years he disposed of the farm and bought a larger one just over the town line in Starkey, on which he lived until his death. His obituary says of him, "He was a practical farmer, and of industrious, frugal habits, plain in dress, retiring and unobtrusive in his intercourse with society, a lover of good order and a strictly upright, honest man in his dealings with all." He was at one time supervisor of Reading.

4. ANSON ANDREWS M.D.

Born Oct. 19, 1797 Greene Co., N.Y.
 Died Mar. 26, 1846 Reading, N.Y. Buried in family lot, Dundee Married Mrs. Sarah Randall Streeter Gilbert. Sarah Streeter was born Feb. 18, 1798, probably Seneca Falls, N.Y. She married (1) Dec. 18, 1823 Jacob M. Gilbert and had one child who d. in infancy. He died Mar. 11, 1826 aged 30. She married (3) Seneca Falls, N.Y. June 23, 1858 as his third wife Robert McCanless (or McCandliss). She died Nov. 16, 1869, he Apr. 1872. Both are buried in Mt. Hope Cemetery, Logansport, Ind.

He was a skillful physician. A license to practice was issued to him from Fairfield, Herkimer Co., N.Y. Jan. 18, 1826. He traveled on horseback, carrying his drugs and instruments in saddle bags. Practiced in Sodus, N.Y. Believed to have returned to Reading in 1834. The family has his certificate of membership in Steuben Co. Medical Society 1843.

Anson and Sarah Streeter Andrews had no children. Adopted in infancy Cornelia, daughter of Orsemus and Katherine Buck Pierce, born Jan. 12, 1830. She married Alba Honeywell and had children, among them Sadie Honeywell Earol.

5. JOHN TUTTLE ANDREWS

Born May 29, 1803 Greene Co., N.Y.
 Died May 11, 1894 Dundee, N.Y. Buried with wife in family lot in Dundee. Married Apr. 12, 1832 Ann Eliza Andrews, daughter of Amherst and Phoebe Cady Andrews. She was born Feb. 10, 1811, died Apr. 12, 1875. See page 37.

John Tuttle Andrews was a merchant in early years. His political career began early in life as justice of the peace and later as sheriff. He was elected representative from the 27th district (Steuben and Yates Cos.) to the 25th Congress where he served one term, at which time he was the youngest member. At that time John Quincy Adams was an outstanding figure in the House and Webster, Clay, and Calhoun were in the Senate. A favorite story of John T. Andrews concerns one of his most treasured possessions, a book in which John Quincy Adams, who sat at a neighboring desk, wrote his signature for him. The book, which he used to display proudly to visiting relatives and friends, disappeared at his death. He lived for several years in Bath, N.Y. and, following his term in Congress, in Dundee, where in 1866 he became a member of the mercantile firm of Martin, Vosburgh, and Co. His obituary calls him "a man of pure life and stainless integrity; a man respected for his many virtues, a true friend, a good citizen, and a courteous gentleman." His diary and letters, as well as the recollections of nieces and nephews, show him to have had an interesting sense of humor and a deep interest in a wide circle of relatives.

6. LOLY ANDREWS (Lowly, Lola)

Born Nov. 14, 1805 Greene Co., N.Y.

7. EDWIN CARLOS ANDREWS

Born Feb. 1, 1807 Windham, Greene Co., N.Y.

Died Sept. 3, 1885 Dundee, N.Y. Buried with wives in family lot in Dundee Married (1) Bucyrus, Ohio May 5, 1836 Rosetta Ward, daughter of Elisha and Zelima Denslow Ward of Oxford (near Milan), Ohio. She was born Oct. 22, 1818 Reading, N.Y., died Aug. 31, 1852 Reading.

Married (2) Feb. 7, 1855 Mary Starkey, daughter of John and Catherine Wycoff Starkey. She was born May 5, 1823, died Apr. 30, 1861 Reading, N.Y.

Edwin Andrews taught his first school at Altay at nineteen and continued for a number of years, seven of which were in his own district. His last term was at Spear's Corners, now Avery, Erie Co., Ohio in 1836, after which he returned with a bride, Rosetta Ward, who had been a favorite pupil of his some years before, before the Ward's removal from Reading to Ohio. A number of interesting school-records of his have been preserved, including an amusing poem which he wrote on the trials of a school teacher. He settled on the family homestead and became one of the most extensive farmers in the county. In 1833 he was elected Justice of the Peace for four years. He was elected Supervisor of the town of Reading in 1847, 1848, 1849. In 1854 he was again elected and became the first member from the town of Reading on the Board of Supervisors of the new county of Schuyler and served for nine years. He was instrumental in establishing the county seat at Watkins. In 1830 he was appointed Ensign in the 206th Regiment of infantry in the state, Lieut. in 1832, and Capt. in 1834. A few years before his death he moved into Dundee and built a home on Seneca St. next to his brother, John T., and transferred the homestead to his son, Homer, in whose family it remained until recently. Old letters show that he kept in touch with a wide circle of relatives and friends, many of whom depended on him for advice and financial assistance.

The biographical sketch of him states that he was "a plain, unpretentious and unostentatious man, of pleasant, affable and agreeable manners, quiet, modest, and unassuming in his demeanor, of solid and sterling common sense, sound judgment, great natural and acquired intelligence, unquestioned integrity under all circumstances, in both public and private life, and possessed in an unusual degree, -because of his ability, sagacity, and clear sense of justice and right-the elements of personal popularity. He was not ambitious of political preferment, and consented to hold positions of public trust only when called upon and strenuously urged to do so, by his fellow citizens. He was emphatically a "home man", strongly attached to domestic cares and labors-industrious, prudent, economical-and content to "pursue the even tenor of his way", through life, with good-will to all his fellowmen. He was a kind and affectionate husband and father, a true and reliable friend, an obliging neighbor, of a naturally benevolent heart and disposition, and an excellent citizen. His highest aim, wish, and desire was to conscientiously discharge every duty incumbent upon him, to his own household, the community in which he lived, his country and his God; and though a man of position, well settled convictions, and great firmness and continuity of purpose, who thought and acted for himself, he never sought to force his opinions upon others, but accorded to all the same freedom of thought and action that he claimed and enjoyed for himself-a noble trait of true manhood, which added to his moral and religious worth, caused him to be highly respected and esteemed."

One obituary says of him, "He had integrity. During a long life he held his word inviolable. No man ever questioned his motives or doubted his honor. By industry and sagacity he achieved success and did it legitimately for no man was his enemy. Mr. Andrews was retiring but not cold. His sympathies were quick and hearty, and his impulses were true and generous. His heart was singularly tender and humane. Every living creature seemed to have a place in his kind nature. This trait was observable during his whole life; in his intercourse with equals or treatment of inferiors he studied to avoid giving pain. He was a man of considerable culture, read much and had strong convictions, while fearless in maintaining he never forced his opinions upon the attention of others."

Another obituary adds, "As a farmer he was a success; his farm was a model of neatness and thrift, one of the best cultivated and most productive in this region. From it he accumulated a handsome fortune."

28. JOHN TUTTLE ANDREWS

Born Mar. 9, 1842 Reading, N. Y.

Died Sept. 5, 1916 Buffalo, N. Y. Buried with wife in Hillside Cemetery, Dundee, N. Y.

Married in Dundee July 18, 1866 Villa Raplee, daughter of Ira and Polly Ann Smith Raplee. She was born Jan. 29, 1843 in Starkey N.Y., died Aug. 5, 1902 Penn Yan, N. Y.

John T. Andrews received his early education in Dundee Preparatory School and Watkins Academy. He attended Alfred University and Union College, from which he was graduated in 1864. In Aug. 1864 he enlisted as a member of Co. D 179th Regiment of New York Volunteer Infantry and saw service at Petersburg, Va. He became a lieutenant and later brevet-captain. He was mustered out of service June 23, 1865. Letters written to his family throughout his service have been preserved and give an interesting record of army life and of the engagements in which he participated. After the war he engaged in the furniture and undertaking business in Dundee. He studied law in Penn Yan and was admitted to the bar in 1870. Since that time he was connected with the legal practice in Penn Yan, though his practice was secondary to other interests. He was connected with a real estate and loaning firm in Penn Yan. In 1873 he began the manufacture of paper and became proprietor of one of the best paper mills in the country. In 1881 he was elected member of Assembly from Yates Co. From 1890 until 1894 he was postmaster at Penn Yan. One obituary said of him, "He was a public spirited citizen and always had at heart the interests of the village in which he lived. He was an ardent Republican and always throughout an active political life worked for the advancement of wholesome government for the state and particularly for Yates County. He was aggressive in his activities and progressive in his thought and work. In his death Penn Yan and Yates county lose one of the best and most useful citizens."

After his marriage Homer Andrews had a boot manufacturing business in Watkins in partnership with his brother-in-law, Lyman Ballard. A few years before Edwin C. Andrews' death he transferred the homestead in Reading to his son, Homer, who operated the farm until 1893 when he purchased a farm in Jefferson, Ohio and moved there. In 1914 when the work proved too arduous he sold the farm to his son Clark and moved into town. He was an active member of the Grange for many years and for several years was president of the Ohio Grangers Mutual Insurance Co. For the last ten years of his life he was blind. His obituary says of him, "He was one of those so rarely found, a successful farmer. Mr. Andrews was a man of sterling worth, devoted to his family and friends, and interested in all matters of progress, local and wider spread."

SIXTH GENERATION IN AMERICA

1. LUCINDA CAROLINE ANDREWS (5th child of Laban and Prudence Andrews

Born May 18, 1769 Wallingford, Conn.

Died Nov. 20, 1844. Buried in Hudson, N.Y. with her husband and three children.

Married 1795 Abner Hammond, son of Paul and Anna Davis Hammond. He was born Oct. 1, 1768, died May 12, 1849. He married (1) Mary, who died Aug. 27, 1794 aged 21 and is buried in Hudson with her husband.

The names of the Hammond children are known, but not the order of their births and it is not known whether or not any of them belonged to the first wife. Miss Eloise Butler, who supplied most of the information on this family, does not credit any to the first wife, of whom she makes no mention, although she did not include Alexander and Polly in the list as first given. Since Mary died in 1794 aged 21, it seems unlikely that more of the children could have belonged to her. The will of Abner Hammond 1849 lists wife Lucinda, sons Carlos and Alexander, and daughters Sally Maria McKinstry, Maritta Bessac, Barsheba White, Caroline McArthur, and Polly Duset. The fact that Carlos was listed before Alexander suggests that he may have been older, and Carlos was a name used in the Ichabod Andrews family, so it may be that both were sons of Lucinda. The 1800 census lists Abner Hammond in Hudson with 1 male 26 to 45 years (himself) 1 female 26 to 45, (wife Lucinda) 1 female over 45 (?) 1 male 16 to 26 (not possibly a son of Abner) 2 males 10 to 16 (most unlikely that even Abner could have had two sons over 10 in 1800) and 3 females under 10. The following definitely belonged to Lucinda Andrews: Abner, Laban, John May, Maritta, Bathsheba, and it seems quite certain that Caroline, Carlos, and Sallie did, also. In his will Abner Hammond left a farm in Claverack to son Carlos and his store in Hudson to son Alexander.

Children of Abner and Lucinda Andrews Hammond:

- (2) Laban died Apr. 7, 179(8?) difficult to decipher
- (3) probably Sally Maria
- (4) Maritta born Sept. 3, 1800
- (5) Bathsheba born 1802
- (6) probably Caroline (would seem to be named after her mother, Lucinda Caroline)
- (7) Abner died Mar. 26, 1806 aged 7 months
- (8) John May dates completely covered when stone was reset
- (9) probably Carlos (It seems unlikely from the census record that he could have been living in 1800, so must have been child of 2nd marriage.)
- (10) probably Alexander (same conclusion as for Carlos) No data
- (11) possibly Polly (though I am inclined to think she belonged to Mary, who may have died in childbirth. It seems unlikely that Lucinda would have had Laban and the three girls listed in the census between her marriage in 1795 and 1800.)

He is listed as a farmer in Reading, N.Y. in the 1850 census.
 She was living in Reading in 1870, later went to Plainfield, N.J. with her daughter where she probably died. The two births of children are recorded in the Laban Andrews Bible and are probably the children of Franklin as he is known to have had a daughter Sarah born about this time.

Children of Franklin and Euphemia Andrews:

SIXTH GENERATION IN AMERICA

1. CONSTANT ABRAHAM ANDREWS (7th child of Laban and Prudence Andrew

Born Aug. 23, 1774 Wallingford, Conn.

Died Prairie du Chien, Wis. before 1820

Married Feb. 28, 1796 Jewett, N.Y. Sarah Brackett, died Oct. 23, 1811 New York City. She was buried in front of New York University on Washington Square, according to descendants. A contribution of $50,000 was given in her name to that university by her son Loring.

Constant Andrews was a surveyor. He left his family about 1817 and went west with his son Julius to seek his fortune, and did not return. About 1820 the son Loring spent about two years in the west in search of his father, and found that both his father and brother had died at Prairie du Chien, Wis.

Children of Constant and Sarah Brackett Andrews:

- (2) Julius died Prairie du Chien, Wis. according to Hist of N.Y. One relative believed that he returned from the west and settled in Wallingford, Conn. but census and other records do not support this.
- (3) Loring born Jan. 31, 1799 Windham, N.Y.
- (4) Adelia
- (5) Loretta Susan born Feb. 23, 1804 Jewett, N.Y.

Died Jan. 22, 1875 New York, N.Y. Buried Greenwood Cemetery

Married (1) Elizabeth Strong. No children. (2) Caroline Catherine Delamater (3) Nov. 1841 Blandina Bruyn Hardenbergh, daughter of Rev. James B. and Frances Rebecca Cooke Hardenbergh of New York and Kingston, N.Y. (she from Schenectady). She was born Apr. 7, 1820 and died Sept. 1883, buried Greenwood Cemetery.

Loring Andrews was early apprenticed to a tanner in Windham 1813-1820. Following his apprenticeship he spent two years in search of his father and brother in the west, learning that both had died in Prairie du Chien, Wis. After many privations he returned to New York by way of New Orleans. He became manager of a tannery for his old master, Foster Morss. In 1829 he migrated to New York City and established himself in the leather business, Loring Andrews and Co., later Loring Andrews and Sons, and acquired a fortune. He was described by business associates as the soul of honor in all transactions. In 1866 he made a gift of $100,000 to New York University, $50,000 of which was in memory of his mother. This endowment continued as "The Loring Andrews Fund" and was the greatest individual gift in the life of the university up to that time. He was for some time a chancellor of the university. He was interested in the laying of the Atlantic Cable and gave considerable aid to the project. He was founder and first president of the Shoe and Leather Bank. He lived in New York, Fordham, and Newport, R.I.

IV. SAMUEL ANDREWS

Born about 1697 died Aug. 5, 1784 in 87th year. Married before 1722 Abigail Tyler, daughter of John and Abigail Hall Tyler. She was born June 29, 1697 Wallingford, died Feb. 13, 1786 Wallingford. Both are buried in Meriden, Conn. their tombstone reading, "The sweet remembrance of the Just/ Shall flourish when he sleeps in dust." "A Century of Meriden, Conn." says that the Andrews were numerous in the community and always eminently respectable, although their alliance with the Church of England seems to have prevented their holding many town offices. Samuel's family were originally loyal puritans and did not join the Church of Eng. until converted by their son Laban who had been converted by a girl to whom he was engaged. The family put their means together and sent son Samuel to Yale and to Eng. to become a minister, and for many years the family was the mainstay of the Episcopal Church in Meriden. They endured much unpleasantness during the Revolutionary War because of their adherence to their church but were nevertheless staunch patriots. Rev. Samuel and his family migrated to New Brunswick to escape persecutions resulting from the war and became rector of the church of St. Andrews. The home of Samuel and Abigail Andrews, probably built as early as 1727 was about one mile west of the present railroad station on what is now Main St. His will and inventory of his estate are of interest.

I. JOHN HALL

Born in Eng. about 1605. It is not known when or from what part of Eng. he came. Shepard lists many circumstances tending to prove that he was an original settler of Hartford and served from there in the Pequot War. It is difficult to distinguish the records of this John Hall of New Haven and of the Middletown John Hall, who, also, earlier settled in Hartford. Some records say that the New Haven John Hall may have been the one admitted freeman in Boston 1634 at the same time as some of the Hooker party and that he probably came to America with them. He signed the Planters Covenant June 4, 1639 and settled in New Haven by 1640 at least. He remained there for thirty years. In 1665 being in his 60th year he was freed from military training. He signed the Wallingford Covenant in 1669 and moved there in 1670. He was a deacon in the church there; in 1675 was a selectman. He married before July 3, 1644 in New Haven Jeanne or Joan Woolen, an English girl supposed to have been a niece or cousin of Mrs. Joan Wilkes, wife of William. She went from Boston to New Haven with the Wilkes in 1638. She had a brother John who was an Indian trader and interpreter. John Hall died in Wallingford in 1676 aged 71. He made an oral will. She married (2) John Cooper about three years after his death. She died some time in 1690.

Children of John and Jeanne Woolen Hall:

1. John b. ab. 1644 d. Sept. 2, 1721 m. Dec. 6, 1666 Mary dau. Edward and Elizabeth Parker d. Sept. 23, 1725.

II. THOMAS HALL

Baptized Mar. 26, 1649 New Haven. Signed the covenant of New Haven settlers to Wallingford. Sergeant for several years. 1689 town auditor; 1695-1711 town clerk. Listed as a surveyor. Deputy from Wallingford to the General Court. Granted land in Wallingford for his father's services in the Pequot War. His was the first marriage in Wallingford. Married about June 5, 1673 Grace Watson, daughter of Edward and Grace Watson. She was bap. in New Haven Mar. 31, 1653. He died Sept. 17, 1711 and she May 1, 1731, both in Wallingford.

I. JOHN HALL

Born co. Kent, Eng. ab. 1584. Came to Boston 1633; first settled Cambridge, moved soon after to Roxbury. He went with John Oldham and two others Sept. 4, 1633 to the Conn. River and returned Jan. 20, 1634 with a favorable report on the rich land, which led to the migration from Dorchester to Wethersfield and Windsor and from Cambridge to Hartford 1635 and 36. He was a freeman in Boston in 1635. Probably joined Hooker and Stone and went to Hartford soon after, but did not move his family until 1639. It is difficult to distinguish the records of this John Hall from those of John Hall of New Haven, who also first settled in Boston and Hartford. He was a carpenter and a surveyor of highways in Hartford. In 1650 he sold his property and moved to Middletown, being one of the original purchasers of land from the Indians. He was a leader in the new settlement, holding many offices of honor and trust. In 1659 the General Court at Hartford appointed him to record goods for custom at Middletown. It is probable that his wife, Esther, died before the family emigrated. His will, dated, May 14, 1673 states that he was then nearly 87 years old and that it was the 40th year of his living in New Eng. He died in Middletown May 26, 1676.

Children of John Hall:

1. John b. Eng. 1619 d. Middletown Jan. 22, 1694 m. (1) Ann, dau. John and Mary Wilcox. She d. July 20, 1673 m. (2) Oct. 1, 1674 Mary widow of Thos. Hubbard.

PECK

I. WILLIAM PECK

Born in London or vicinity about 1604. Married there Elizabeth. Came from England with wife and son Jeremiah, probably in company with Gov. Eaton and Rev. Davenport in the Hector in 1637. He was one of the founders of New Haven. Freeman 1640. He was a merchant. He was trustee, treasurer, and general business agent of the Colony Collegiate School. He was honored by being given the title "Mr." Deacon in New Haven from 1659 until his death. His wife died Dec. 5, 1683. He married (2) Sarah, widow of William Holt, died 1717. He died Oct. 14, 1694 aged 93 (according to his tombstone), aged 90 (according to New Haven Vital Records) His grave is in the old burial ground at Center Church in New Haven, but his gravestone was moved to the new cemetery when the church was built on the spot.

BRONSON

I. JOHN BRONSON (Brownson, Brunson)

He was born about 1600, and died in Farmington, Conn. Nov. 28, 1680. No records of his wife have been found. Sibley says the first Brownson of whom we have record went from Scotland to England in 1563. He states that there is a record of a Richard Brownson in Chelmsford, Essex, prior to 1636, where he was a member of the church of Rev. Thomas Hooker, and that there is every reason to believe that he with sons Richard and John went incognito on the ship with Hooker. Their names, however, do not appear on the lists of nonconformists asking permits to leave Eng. They are known to have been in America about this time as members of Hooker's church. Other records also state that John and Richard Bronson were at Hartford at an early date, probably coming with Hooker in 1636 and being members of his church. Probably their father, Richard, an aged man, was with them, but owned no land there. Neither are mentioned in the land division of 1639 but are listed as settlers. John was in the Pequot War 1637. About 1641 he moved to Tunxis. He and John Jr., Richard, Jacob, Abraham, and Isaac were in the first division of land in Farmington, Conn. and John Sr. was one of the seven pillars at the organization of the church there. He represented the town of Farmington at the General Court in 1651 and later.

6. Dorcas m. Stephen Hopkins (one record lists her as child of Abraham)
7. Sarah d. Dec. 4, 1711 m. Ebenezer Kilbourn of Wethersfield

II. ABRAHAM BRONSON

Baptized Nov. 28, 1647 Hartford. Married in Lyme, Conn. Sept. 2, 1674 Hannah Griswold, daughter of Matthew and Anna Wolcott Griswold. She was born probably not later than 1656. He died June 27, 1719 aged 72, she Apr. 13, 1721. Both are buried in Meeting House Hill Burying Ground at Lyme. He was one of the original signers for Farmington agreement. He signed articles for settling of Waterbury but failed to go. Settled at Lyme, which he represented at the General Court. He had half the votes of the county to be lieutenant at the military election 1678. He was administrator with his mother-in-law of the estate of Matthew Griswold. Matthew II became involved in a suit against them, claiming that Abraham had withheld from him a trunkful of papers regarding money here or in Eng. so that they could not be recorded. It is not known what became of them.

Children of Abraham and Hannah Griswold Bronson:

CLARK

I. DANIEL CLARK

Born about 1622 died Aug. 12, 1710. Came to America in 1639 with Rev. Ephraim Huit, who was minister from Wroxhall Church near Kenilworth in Warwickshire, Eng. The ancestry of Daniel Clark is not known nor the place from which he came but he was supposed to have been a nephew of Rev. Ephraim Huit, and in 1644 was named executor of his will. He was one of the first settlers at Windsor, Conn. Tradition says he went home after being here some years, knocked at his parents' door pretending to be a stranger from America, and was welcomed as a friend of their son, later was recognized by his sister Martha. He was a lawyer and during his long life in Windsor was generally in public office: Rep. 1657-61, Sec'y. of Colony 1658-62, Member of Court of Assistants 1662-4, Commissioner 1662, Capt. of Troops 1664, Att'y. in Andrus' court at Hartford 1687, one of signers and grantees of charter of Conn., and numerous other offices. As Magistrate he was appointed to sit in "the greate pew" 1651. Married (1) Windsor June 13, 1644 Mary Newberry, daughter of Thomas and Joane Dabinott Newberry. She was baptized Whitechurch, Canoniscom, co. Dorset, Eng. Oct. 22, 1622, died Aug. 29, 1688. Married (2) Martha Pitkin Wolcott, sister of William Pitkin and widow of Simon Wolcott. GRISWOLD

I. MATTHEW GRISWOLD

Two brothers, Matthew and Edward, came to America about 1639 and settled in Windsor. An affidavit of Matthew 1684 states that he was about 64 at the time and that he came in 1639. A statement by George, son of Edward, indicates that they came from Kenilworth, co. Warwick, Eng. and that their father's name was George. Some records say that Lyme, Conn. was named for the ancestral home of the Griswolds, others that this statement is not supported by findings. Tradition is that they came with Rev. Ephraim Huit 1639. A brother Thomas remained on the old homestead in Eng. Some records suggest that Michael Griswold of Wethersfield and Francis Grissel may have been brothers. Matthew soon left for Saybrook, where he received a large grant of land 1645, which became the foundation of a large fortune. He was one of the first magistrates and served as an agent of Lord Fenwick. He was a pioneer settler of Lyme, set off from Saybrook 1665. He was reputed to be the richest man in Lyme, and after his death his property increased still more, becoming almost baronial in proportions. The family home was called Blackhall. It has been suggested that this name originated in the fact that a log cabin he built, in which one of his negro men lived, became known as Blackhall. He was a deputy to the General Court 1654-68 and later Commissioner from Lyme 1669: Justice of the Peace 1689 for 5 year. Lieut. of Train Band 1677. He was by trade a mason and stone cutter and furnished stones for the graves of many early settlers. He made a stone table for the grave of his father-in-law, Henry Wolcott, which is almost intact after all these years. He presented to the church the first silver cup used in observance of the Lord's Supper, inscription "S. C. ex dono domini Matthai Griswold" His widow and his son-in-law, Abraham Bronson, as administrators of his estate were sued by Matthew Griswold, Jr. for withholding a trunkful of papers regarding money here or in Eng. of Matthew Sr. so that they could not be recorded. It is not known what became of them, but if they could have been recorded they might have thrown some light on the English ancestry of the family. He married Oct. 16, 1646 Anna, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth Saunders Wolcott. She was born about 1620, aged 79 in 1699. He died in Lyme Sept. 27, 1698 probably buried in Saybrook burying ground though his grave is not found. She was living Sept. 17, 1700 but was probably dead by May 22, 1701 when Abraham Bronson was the only administrator.

NEWBERRY

I. THOMAS NEWBERRY

Baptized Yarmouth co. Devon, Eng. Nov. 10, 1594, son of Richard and Grace Matthew Newberye. The Newberry Genealogy traces his ancestry back through fifteen generations of Newberowes and Newburghs to Henry de Newburgh, Earl of Warwick, who received grants from William the Conqueror and built famous Warwick Castle, and beyond him through several generations of Norman nobles. Thomas Newberry evidently had an excellent education and engaged in legal study in London. He married (1) about 1619 Joane Dabinott, daughter of Christopher Dabinott of Yarcombe, co. Devon and Chardstock and Marshwood and Upway, co. Dorset. Her ancestry is proved by his will which mentions the children of Thos. Newberry and his deceased daughter Joane. She was born about 1600, died in Eng. about 1629. He married (2) about 1630 Jane, perhaps a Dabinott cousin of Joane. She m. (2) Rev. John Warham and died Norwalk, Conn. Apr. 23, 1655. In 1626 Thos. Newberry was in Marshwood at Coweleyes, an estate which was the property of his father-in-law. Valuable genealogical information is furnished by a suit (in chancery proceedings) involving this property left by the will of Christopher Dabinott.. Thos. evidently embraced the Puritan faith and went to New Eng. where he was a grantee of lands in Dorchester Sept. 1, 1634. Freeman 1634. Deputy to General Court for Dorchester 1634-5. Active in project for settling Windsor, Conn., but died before his removal, probably Dec. 1635. Always termed "Mr." Brought a large stock of goods from Eng. evidently intending to trade as an importing merchant. The inventory of his estate is over £ 1500. His widow and children moved to Windsor.

STANLEY

I. JOHN STANLEY

An entry in the Mass. Col. Records Mar. 3, 1635 states that John Stanley died intestate on the way to New Eng. and left three children, the youngest since deceased. He left an estate in good and chattels amounting to L116. His brother Thomas was to bring up son John until age of 21 and his brother Timothy to bring up Ruth. These families had come to Boston in May 1634, at least Timothy had, and probably the others. John was probably a widower, as no mention was made of a wife or mother of the children whose ages were 10, 6, and 4. It is possible that Elizabeth Stanley who married William Smith in Hartford 1644 was his 2nd wife but more likely she was a sister of the three brothers. A Boston Transcript item states that a John Stanley, probably this one, married Apr. 19, 1632 Elizabeth Igleden of Brenzet, age about 20, niece of Daniel Igleden of Bidenden. John is listed as about 26, of Brookland, a miller. No proof as to whether this is the same. Flagg gives the baptism of John in Ashford, co. Kent, Eng. Dec. 28, 1603 and states that John, Thomas, and Timothy were sons of John and Susan Lancock Stanley. John died Apr. or May 1634. The Hartford Stanleys may have come from co. Kent to Boston went to New Town (now Cambridge). Thomas removed to Lynn not long after and to Hartford in 1636.

Children of John Stanley:

1. John born 1624
2. Ruth b. 1629 m. Isaac More Dec. 5, 1645
3. an infant died 1634

II. JOHN STANLEY

Born about 1624. Married (1) Dec. 5 (or 15), 1645 Sarah Scott, daughter of Thomas and Ann Scott of Hartford. She died June 6, 1661. Married (2) Apr. 20, 1663 Sarah daughter of John Fletcher of Milford (Farmington record) Sarah Stodder or Stoddard (Stanley Gen.) He died Dec. 19, 1706, she May 15, 1713. He settled in Farmington at the time of his marriage. About 1656 he and John Andrews penetrated the wilderness west of Farmington and discovered a black lead mine in a hill. This excited a great deal of interest at the time but trouble with the Indians prevented development of the find and its location has been forgotten. He was one of the most distinguished of the colonists, being appointed to nearly every office of trust and honor. He was deputy to the General Court 1659-96, Lieut. and Capt. in King Philips War. He was usually called Capt. John Stanley. Constable in Farmington 1654, Commissioner on Indian troubles. His grandson, Nathaniel, left books and papers, accounts from 1725, family history, memoranda, etc. and books in the handwriting of John (1647-1729) relative to the settlement of Waterbury and other matters. Much of the family genealogy is given in these records. These "Stanley Manuscripts" relate that John Sr. went in the expedition against the Pequots when he was 13 years old.

WOLCOTT

I. HENRY WOLCOTT

Son of John Wolcott of Tolland, Somersetshire, Eng. Baptized in parish of Lydiard St. Lawrence Dec. 6, 1578. Married Jan. 19, 1606 Elizabeth Saunders, daughter of Thomas Saunders of Lydiard St. Lawrence. She was baptized Dec. 20, 1584. The home of the Wolcotts was Galden Manor, Tolland. Henry Wolcott spent the first part of his life as a country squire. He became converted and identified himself with the Puritan party, and came to America for religious freedom. Much of the material for the Wolcott Genealogy is stated to have come from documents in an old small trunk bearing in brass nails the initials H.W. An old "Family Chronologie 1691" gives much information about the family. It states that Henry Wolcott came to New England about 1628 and in 1630 brought his family to avoid the persecutions of the times against dissenters. He sailed from Plymouth, Eng. in the "Mary and John" 1630. Freeman Boston Oct. 19, 1630. Settled at Dorchester. To Windsor 1635. It is said that he sold estates of 18000 in Eng. to come to America. At the death of an elder brother he inherited the family estates in Eng. 1640. He appears to have visited Eng. previous to this time at which time the younger children had probably come to New Eng. Probably after the pastor he was the most distinguished man in Windsor, holding important offices, 1637, member of lower house of first General Assembly of Conn., in 1643 elected to House of Magistrates and annually reelected, brought a commission from the crown as justice, constable 1636, deputy to the General Court 1639, Governor's Assistant 1643-55. He died May 30, 1655 she July 7, 1655. Buried in the first Congregational Churchyard Cemetery. Over their graves is an arched monument of brown stone, in perfect preservation, said to be the oldest monument of the style in the country. This monument is ascribed to his son-in-law, Matthew Griswold.

Children of Henry and Elizabeth Saunders Wolcott:

1. John bap. Oct. 1, 1607. Evidently did not emigrate.
2. Anna Came over with sister and youngest brother after the family had become settled. Married Oct. 16, 1646 Matthew Griswold

HOWE

I. EDWARD HOWE

Came on the Truelove 1635 with wife and five children. The ship list gives Edward Howe, husbandman, 60, Elizabeth 50, Jeremie 21, Sara 12, Ephraim 9, Isaac 7, William 6. He settled at Lynn, Mass. where he was a freeman in 1636. Deputy to the General Court 1638. Large landowner. There is little information about him as early Lynn records are missing. Probably there were other children born here. He died Apr. 1639. His death is mentioned in Winthrop's History of New England. He calls him a godly man, says that after court was ended and he had dined he went to pass over to Charlestown alone and was later found dead on the strand, probably while waiting for the boat.

IVES

I. WILLIAM IVES

It is generally assumed that he descended from the Norfolk family and was born in Northamptonshire 1607. He came to Boston in the Truelove in 1635 being listed as 28 years old. He probably lived in or near Watertown. He joined the Davenport Co. 1638 and signed the covenant. Settled in New Haven. He evidently married soon as a census in 1639 lists two members in the family. He died before June 6, 1648 leaving a will. The monument at North Haven bearing his name does not mark his burial place. Married Hannah who married (2) Nov. 7, 1648 William Bassett.

Children of William and Hannah Ives:

MERRIMAN

I. NATHANIEL MERRIMAN

His ancestry has been traced for three generations in Eng. to Thomas Merriman, a weaver of Whitney, co. Oxford. Nathaniel was son of George Merriman, a cooper of London, as proved by his will which mentions his son Nathaniel resident in New Eng. 1655. He was born ab. 1614, died Wallingford, Conn. Feb. 13, 1693/4 aged 80. He was a member of a company called the Puritan Plough Co., a group of husbandmen (so-called, but mostly artisans and tradesmen) in Eng. mostly plain people not exceptionally well educated. They petitioned the Council of Plymouth for a grant in New Eng. Among the second group to come was Nathaniel Merriman on the ship Whale in 1632, a boy of 19, who came "upon the adventure of Peter Wooster". He fought in the Pequot War as indicated by a grant to his son for his father's services. Nothing further is known of him from his arrival until he appeared in New Haven not later than Mar. 17, 1641. He took the oath of fidelity there 1644. Was one of the founders of Wallingford. Serg. of Train Band in New Haven. Lieut. in Wallingford, Deputy to the General Court for nine sessions, juror and commissioner, town clerk for nine years, magistrate of the town. Married Joan born about 1628 died Dec. 8, 1709.

PECK

I. PAUL PECK

Born about 1620 (Peck Gen. says co. Essex, Eng.) His deposition 1683 says he was 60 years old, probably an understatement. Supposedly came to America in the Defense 1635 and remained in Boston or vicinity until 1636 when he went with Hooker to Hartford where his name is on the list of proprietors 1639. The records indicate he was a leading man there. Surveyor of highways 1659, 1665, townsman 1661, 68 and 74. Deacon from 1681 until his death Dec. 23, 1695. John Winthrop's Medical Journal gives the identity and age of his wife. Married Martha Hale born about 1622, died after June 25, 1695. She was a sister of Thomas and Samuel Hale. Jacobus approximates the dates of birth for most of the children from their order in the father's will, from their marriages, ages of children, etc.

Children of Paul and Martha Hale Peck:

TUTTLE

I. WILLIAM TUTTLE

Name also spelled in early records Tuttell, Tuttoll, and Tutthill. Born in Eng. about 1609. Came to New Eng. 1635 on the Planter with wife Elizabeth and three children. The passenger list gives William Tuttell, husbandman, 26, Elizabeth 23, John 3½, Anna 2¼, Thomas 3 mos. Two other Tuttle families came on the same ship, John settling in Ipswich, and Richard in Boston. A relationship has not been established between these and William of New Haven. Elizabeth Tuttle united with the church in Boston 1636. A petition on file in Boston indicates that he was a merchant. He moved to New Haven and signed the Church Covenant 1639. The Tuttle homestead owned by William Tuttle and his heirs for 30 years was the first land acquired by Yale College and on it stood the first college building. William Tuttle was a large land owner. He was honored by being accorded the title "Mr." His activities included public duties as juror, constable, road commissioner, etc. He died in 1673, exact date not known, without leaving a will. Elizabeth Tuttle died Dec. 30 or 31, 1684. Both were buried in the Old Green, her stone, with part of the inscription still legible, was moved with others to the Grove St. Cemetery when the church was built on the spot.

V. JOHN TUTTLE

Born Apr. 30, 1746 Wallingford. The Tuttle Gen. says that at about the age of 13 he joined a military company and marched to Lake George with the object of recovering his father's gun and powder horn. He did this and used them afterward in the Revolution.

According to the Tuttle Gen. he went to Greene Co., N.Y. about 1788, put up a log house in a country almost an unbroken wilderness, and returned to Wallingford for his family. During his absence the house was torn down by Indians. In 1793 he was one of the first vestrymen of Trinity Church in Ashland, N.Y. The 1800 census lists him in Windham, N.Y. He married Jan. 20, 1766 Wallingford Lois Austin (Jacobus says perhaps daughter of John and Mary Royce Austin) She was born about 1744, died Sept. 19, 1808 aged 64. He died Aug. 13, 1825, both buried Ashland Cemetery, some of the dates on her stone being worn and illegible. He left a will, leaving the farm in Windham, on which he lived, to his son Sidney. There is a record of this family in a Bible in the Andrews family, which gives the date of death and age of Lois Tuttle, the births of the children, and the deaths of three of them. Unfortunately the date of birth of Lois Austin Tuttle and the names of her parents are not given.

Children of John and Lois Austin Tuttle:

PROBABLE MATERNAL ANCESTRY OF LOWLY TUTTLE

AUSTIN

LOIS AUSTIN, mother of Lowly Tuttle. The dates on her tombstone in Ashland Cemetery, Greene Co., N. Y. are almost completely undecipherable, and no record of her birth has been found. A Bible in the Andrews family lists her death Sept. 19, 1808 and states that she was taken sick June 1, 1808 aged 64. This would indicate that she was born about 1743 or 44. She married Jan. 20, 1766 John Tuttle, son of Jehiel and Hannah Hull Tuttle. Jacobus states that she was probably a daughter of John and Mary Royce Austin of Wallingford, Conn., of which family only incomplete records have been found. The following is the Austin line to which Lois Austin Tuttle probably belongs, though no proof has yet been found.

I. JOHN AUSTIN

Brother of Leonard, who died without issue in New Haven, Conn. Mar. 8, 1677/8. John settled in New Haven and died there 1690. He married Nov. 5, 1667 in New Haven Mercy Atwater, daughter of David and Damaris Sayre Atwater. She was born in New Haven Feb. 29, 1647/8. She was buried Apr. 14, 1683.
